Luper Player of Year in 'Summit League'

Adair's Kevi Luper, superstar freshman at Oral Roberts University in Tulsa, captured three of the five major women's basketball awards as announced today by the Summit League.

Luper earned Summit League Player of the Year, Defensive Player of the Year and Newcomer of the Year honors in voting by the league's 10 head coaches, sports information directors and select media members.

Oral Roberts' Jerry Finkbeiner earned Coach of the Year honors.

Luper claimed the Player of the Year, Defensive Player of the Year and Newcomer of the Year awards after leading Oral Roberts to a 15-3 league record and top seed in The Summit League Women's Basketball Championship.

In league play, the freshman is tops in points per game with 24.4 and also leads in steals with 4.9.

For the year, Luper has retained the top spot in the nation in steals since the beginning of the season and currently averages 4.6 in all games played.

Her 25.6 points average for all games is currently fourth in Division I.
